GREENSBORO'S NEW DEPOT.

Contractors Now Considering Plans and Making Figures.

It appears that a great many people in Greensboro have been skeptical in regard to the proposed new passenger depot at this place. It has been talked about in the papers and on the streets. It has been mooted that the Southern railway was insincere in its promises of better passenger accommodations at this place.

But in this the skeptical ones are wrong. The Telegram has all along contended that the Southern would build a handsome depot here. The plans and specifications for the building are now in the hands of several contractors who are to submit their figures and the contract will be awarded at an early date. The bids are to be submitted by the 20th.

Instead of a sixteen or eighteen thousand dollar house, as was at first announced, the new depot will cost, we learn, about $45,000. Thomas Woodroffe, of this city, J. D. Selist, of Hickory, John P. Pettijohn & Co., of Lynchburg, and a contractor in Washington, are among the bidders for this work.

Work on the depot will begin so soon as material for the structure can be secured. Thus, before the summer is gone, Greensboro will be supplied with what she has long needed—a passenger depot in keeping with her importance as a centre of passenger traffic.

Your Last Chance.

Friday night will most likely be your last chance to see the present company of Guilford Grays. Capt. Schenck got orders from Adjutant General Cowles to report for duty with his company of thirty by Saturday. The entire enlistment will march out in a body to the Lawn Party at Mrs. Ballard's Friday night, May 15. The firemen have spared no expense to make the party a geeat success, and if the people will stick to us we will be heeled. Don't forget the date and place. The Greensboro Orchestra will furnish the music.

Arrested in Camp.

Chief of police J. A. Woodall, of Durham, passed through today en route to Salisbury to secure two diamond rings which Lawrence Gore claims to have sold there. Gore stole the rings from a young lady in Durham some weeks ago. Since then he has escaped arrest until he enlisted in the Queen City Guards under an assumed name and while in camp at Raleigh was recognized by a Durham man who immediately notified the police. Gore is now in jail at Durham.

On Time.

The Southern railway excursion will put you in Raleigh in time to see the city thoroughly and take in the soldiers camp drill, &c. You can't afford to miss this opportunity. It

BOMBARDMENT OF CARDENAS

Torpedo Boat Winslow Hit By a Six Inch Shell.

SIX MEN KILLED OUTRIGHT.

Americans Prevented From Landing. Gunboats Still Shelling the Forts. The Official Report.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Key West, May 12—The Revenue cutter Hudson arrived this morning and gives the following account of the bombardment of Cardenas: The torpedo boat Winslow, the gunboat Wilmington and the revenue cutter Hudson engaged the forts at Cardenas yesterday afternoon. For thirty-five minutes a furious cannonade was kept up by the boats and the forts on shore.

During the engagement a six-inch shell from the fortifications struck the torpedo boat Winslow squarely, passing through her forward boilers which immediately exploded, also exploding seventy-five rounds of ammunition. The following is the list of the killed: Ensign Worth Bagley, of Raleigh, N. C.; fireman J. Denefee; George Meek, oiler; John Varveres, cook; and Seamen Patterson and Berans, all of the Winslow.

The wounded are Lt. Fernand, shot in the thigh; Quartermaster McKeown, and seamen, R. Cox and M. Gray. The Hudson was struck twice but was not injured. The Wilmington was unhit. The American injuries were due to a masked battery which opened fire from near the water's edge.

THE OFFICIAL REPORT.

Washington, May 12—Secretary Long this afternoon issued the following, dated at Key West: "To the Secretary of Navy—In the action at Cardenas harbor yesterday afternoon between the Spanish gunboats and shore batteries and the American blockading squadron the following were killed: Worth Bagley, ensign; John Varveres, oiler; J. Denefee, fireman; Elijah Tunnell, cook. The wounded are J. B. Fernan, Lieutenant Commanding; Wm. Patterson, seriously but not fatally; Daniel W. McKown, quartermaster, slightly. The dead and wounded arrived on the Hudson this morning. The dead will be buried today. (Signed,)

AMERICAN CRUISER BLOWN UP.

Washington, May 12—It is reported this morning that the auxilliary cruiser Tecumseh was blown uy yesterdap in the bombardment of Cunfuegos. The report has not been officially confirmed but as it comes from several sources it is feared that it is true. The Tecumseh was formerly the ocean tug Edward Luckenbach, of New York, and was commanded by Lieutenant C. R. Evans.

SHELLING CARDENA AGAIN.

Key West, May 12, 2:30 p. m.—The gunboats Wilmington and Machias are shelling the defences of Cardenas again this afternoon.

CARDENAS IN FLAMES.

Key West, May 12—The Revenue cutter Hudson has just arrived at this port with four dead sailors aboard and one wounded member of the crew of the torpedo boat Winslow. The gunboats Wilmington, Machias, Annapolis and the torpedo boat Winslow constituted the bombarding fleet off Cardenas yesterday. Cardenas is in flames.

BOMBARDING SAN JUAN.

New York, May 12—A special to the Journal from fort De France says that nine American warships are bombarding San Juan de Puerto Rico this morning. This is taken to mean that Sampsons squadron is reducing the fortifications at that place.

REIDSVILLE INDIGNANT

Over the Treatment of the Rifles—Fifteen Men Leave for Richmond.

Special to THE TELEGRAM.

Reidsville, N. C., May 12—The members of the Reidsville Rifles are very indignant at a telegram received yesterday in which they are notified that their place in the Second Regiment has been assigned to another company. They charge treachery on the part of some one and claim that the Hull volunteer bill has been violated, in that a regularly organized company belonging to the state guard has been turned down.

The Rifles have been in camp here awaiting orders for the company to report at Raleigh. Many of the members have given up good positions in order to volunteer. Satisfactory arrangements had been made to consolidate our company with the Oxford company and assurances were given them that they would be ordered into camp at Raleigh this week.

Great indignation is expressed by our citizens at the unfair treatment the Rifles have received. There has been dirty work somewhere. Fifteen members of the company joined the Danville Blues yesterday and left last night for Richmond.

Thief Arrested.

A tramp has been stealing a number of household articles and garden tools with the intention probably of setting up an establishment of his own. Last night he added a bucket to his collection, taking it from the back porch of Foster Jackson's house near the coal chute. The tramp became discouraged and threw away the bucket and was arrested by Officer Scott, after selling one of his stolen chairs. The bucket was found and returned to its owner. The tramp ended up in the guard house.

Your Last Chance.

Don't fail to go with Bogart to Raleigh Saturday, May 14th, this is the first excursion ever run from Greensboro to Raleigh over the C. F. and Y. V. and Seaboard Air Line railroads. tf

DEWEY MUST NOT LAND.

Warships of the Powers Sent to Manila.

GERMANY AT THE BOTTOM OF IT.

London and Madrid Reports of the Cardenas Fight—Dewey Sinks Another Vessel.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

New York, May 12—Despatches from London and Hong Kong say that two German, one French, and one Japanese warships are now at Manila and a Russian warship is expected. The ships will combine to prevent Dewey fram landing. Germany has intimated that it expects to have a controlling voice in the disposition of the Philippines. International complications are imminent.

SPANISH ACCOUNT.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Port Antonio, Jamacia, May 12—A terrific bambardment of Cienfuegos, on the South coast of Cuba, is reported this morning. The bombardment resulted in heavy losses to both sides. When the American vessels attempted to land troops they were severely repulsed by the Spaniards. The battle began early yesterday morning and continued for eight hours. Four American warships participated and their firing was returned by the land batteries at Cienfuegos and a strong force of Spanish soldiers. When the Americans attempted to land men from the barges which had been towed into the harbor by steam launches, they were driven back by the murderous fire from the artillery and hot volleys from a battery of Mausers.

Later the American invaders assaulted the opposite side of the bay, towing the barges into a small stream. Two attempts to land troops were made but in both instances they were repulsed. Twenty Spaniards are known to have received wounds. The American loss is not known.

CARDENAS BOMBARDED.

London, May 12—Cardenas, the eastern gateway of Havana, has been bombarded by the American fleet. Six warships of the United States appeared off the city yesterday and engaged the defences of the city in a well directed fire. This bombardment is simultaneous with the one that occurred yesterday at Cienfuegos. The Americans successfully landed a boat at Cardenas and captured the signal stations situated there.

GUNBOAT SUNK.

The warships entered the bay and opened a raking fire on the shore batteries and many shells were dropped into the city. The Spanish gunboat Antonio Lopez offered a feeble resistance but a shell from one of the Yankee war ships struck her squarely and sank her.

LANDING REPULSED.

The Americans attempted to land several more boat loads of soldiers but the Spaniards vigorously and successfully repulsed them. Several bands of Cuban insurgents in the vicinity tried to co-operate with the Americans but with little effect. It is believed that the two companies of the first infantry, who left Tampa on the transport ship Gussie Tuesday afternoon, participated.

REPORT CONFIRMED.

Madrid, May 12—Havana dispatches confirm the reports of the defeat of the Americans at Cardenas and Cienfuegos.

SPANISH WARSHIP SUNK.

Hong Kong, May 12—A trading vessel from Philippines has just arrived and brings the report that two American gun boats sunk a Spanish warship off Iloilo. The Spaniards fought desperately and violently for two hours and went down with their flag flying from the mast of the warship. No Americans were killed and no damage whatever was done to the gunboat Concord. Of the two Spanish men-of-war now in Asiatic waters one is disabled here and the cruiser Boston is now chasing the other one. Admiral Dewey proposes to capture Iloila and Cebu, the only important Phillippine ports outside of Manila.

CAPE VERDE FLEET AT CADIZ.

London, May 12—Ambassador Hay has been definitely informed that the Cape Verde fleet is at Cadiz.

TROUBLOUS TIMES.

So absorbed have we all been in the Hispano-American war that events of pith and moment elsewhere have been almost pushed out of the newspaper columns and have received only casual notice from the public. The notice has perhaps been more slight than the events deserved.

We are wont to speak of the deplorable condition in which Spain finds herself; yet the straits of Italy are even more sore. The Spanish mob is noisy; the Italian mob is deadly. In the principal cities of Italy there is bitter fighting—there is shooting to kill. More men have lost their lives in three days than in the three weeks of our war with Spain. The classic peninsula is trembling on the very verge of anarchy—revolution it has already. As in Spain, the dynasty is fighting for its life—only the army remains true to it. If the dynasty fall, then expect a repetition of the scenes of the French revolution. Indeed there have been incidents already that do not pale beside any of the former orgie of blood. Taxed to the bone to support a fleet and army that shall enable Italy to keep her place in the Triple Alliance, priest-ridden, goaded to fury by famine and maddening exactions, the Italian peasantry and the canaille of the cities are running amuck. Just over the Alps, Austria looks on and quakes. For more than a year Franz Joseph has sat upon a tottering throne. Austria is a mosaic. Race hatred, bickering, friction of clashing tongues, have threatened the life of the nation. Italy may furnish the cue. The success of the revolution in Italy would inevitably mean the partition of Austria. And that would mean—the havest: the harvest of centuries of oppression—a harvest reaped by an ignorant populace mad with a thirst for blood—the deluge. Russia, Germany, and France would be compelled to take a hand. The days of Napoleon come again, and worse. These be troublous times. This country and England alone are safe. The wisdom of European statesmen has been confounded. They have predicted the downfall of England, the dissolution of the United States. Neither is probable. Both nations are strong in their foundations—a free people with some light and resolute to seek more, peaceably, sanely. We are gone beyond our borders to fight the battles of the oppressed; and elsewhere the oppressed are fighting for themselves within their own borders—fighting how pitifully, how wastefully! The world is making history apace—and the Anglo-Saxon alone has no need to be ashamed of the history he is making.

The Spanish Minister to the Court of St. James arches his neck as he declares: "Spain has military and naval traditions the power of which will make itself felt at the fitting moment." And the United States has 13-inch shells that will make themselves felt without waiting for fitting moments. American marksmanship will still strive to worry along and hold its own against Spanish traditions. So much has been said about those same traditions that it is worth while to recall occasionally that they refer to an unbroken series of lickings that have been administered by everybody Spain has fought, from England to Cuba.

Certain esteemed contemporaries have been talking much about the money that would be kept at home by the postponement of European tours. We had supposed that stupidity kept us from seeing the point, since not one American tourist in a thousand visits Spain anyway and they are free to go elsewhere as usual. The Wilhelm Der Grosse has just sailed with 1,100 passengers for Europe—the list largest in its history. The point is still obscure.

General Blanco seems to have changed his mind about not needing anything. In a few weeks all that will be necessary to capture the Spanish battalions will be to draw a cordon of savory barbecues around Havana when the wind sets toward the city.

If it is desired to give the marines further target practice a bunch might be stationed in the wheat pit to try at the price of that cereal.

The valor of Spain's navy seems to be remarkably well provided with discretion.

The Voice of the Oregon.

You have called to me, my brothers,
from your far off eastern sea,
To join with you, my brothers, to set a prostrate people free.
You have called to me, my brothers,
to join to yours my might,
The slaughterers of our brethren with our armored hands to smite.

We have never met, my brothers, we mailed knights of the sea;
But there are no strangers, brothers,
'neath the Banner of the Free;
And though half a world's between us
and ten thousand leagues divide,
Our souls are intermingled and our hearts are side by side.

Did you fail to call me, brothers,
'twere a fault without atone.
'Twas but just to me, my brothers, you should not strike alone.
The brethren in the slaughter were no more thine than mine.
And the blows that visit vengeance must be mine as well as thine.

Through days of placid beauty and nights when tempests toss,
I follow down the billow my guide, the Southern Cross;
Past lands of quiet splendor, where pleasant waters lave;
Past lands whose mountain ramparts fling back the crashing wave.

But I see no land of splendor and I see no land of wrath;
I see before me only the ocean's heaving path,
And I plunge along that pathway like a giant to the fray,
Who hath no stomach in him for aught that might delay.

I am nearing you, my brothers, for the western sea's afar,
And the ray that lights my course now is the gleaming Northern Star.
I pray you wait, my brothers, for the air with war is rife,
And in courtesy of knighthood I claim to share the strife.

In the winds that blow about me the voices of the dead
Are calling to me, brothers, to urge my topmost speed.
In the foam that's upward flying in whirling wreaths of white
These wraiths of murdered brothers beckon onward to the fight.

I am coming to you, brothers, wait
but a little while,
And on the thunders of our greeting
shall the God of Vengeance smile;
And in the flashing and the crashing
the universe shall see How we pay our debts of honor, we mailed knights of the sea.

Cricket in Australia is suffering from the rooters in Australian "barrackers." Mr. Stoddart, whose English team has returned home after a series of defeats by the Australians, complains that at every match a portion of the public hooted the players, Englishmen and Australians alike.

At Schkeuditz, in Prussian Saxony, the burgomaster recently gave orders that on Sunday people should dress in a manner worthy of the majesty of the day. A mechanic who appeared in the streets in his working clothes was arrested and condemned to a fine of three marks and one days imprisonment. Though the decision was set aside on appeal, the court censured the man for "innocent and unseemly behavior."

Electric Bitters.

Electric Bitters is a medicine suited for any season, but perhaps more generally needed when the languid, exhausted feeling prevails, when the liver is torpid and sluggish and the need of a tonic and alterative is felt. A prompt use of this medicine has often averted long and perhaps fatal bilious fevers. No medicine will act more surely in counteracting and freeing the system from the malarial poison. Headache, constipation, dizziness yield to Electric Bitters. 50c. and $1.00 per bottle at C. E. Holton's drug store.

QUART BOTTLES.

Painful and Supressed Menses, Irregularity, Leucorrhœa, Whites, Sterility, Ulceration of the Uterus, change of life in matron or maid, all find relief, help, benefit and cure in JOHNSTON'S SARSAPARILLA. It is a real panacea for headache, pains in the left side, indigestion, palpitation of the heart, cold hands and feet, nervousness, sleeplessness, muscular weakness, bearing-down pains, backache, legache, irregular action of the heart, shortness of breath, abnormal discharges with painful menstruation, scalding of urine, swelling of feet, soreness of the breasts, neuralgia, uterine displacement, and all those symptoms which make the average woman's life so miserable. It will be an inspiring sight to see the White City of Tents and the long lines of our soldier boys with their shining accoutrements and glistening bayonets, keeping step to Martial Music. They will leave Camp Grimes soon to meet the treacherous Spaniards in battle. Before they do so let every one avail himself of this opportunity to encourage them by his presence and bid them "God Speed" in their glorious sacrifice for a down-trodden people. You may have a brother or friend in camp. If so, do not miss this opportunity of bidding him goodbye. perhaps for the last time on earth.

BENNETT COMMENCEMENT.

The College Will Open Again October Fifth.

Communicated.

The graduating exercises of Bennett College in our city yesterday were attended by near 1500 people, despite the rainy weather. There were fourteen graduates, seven from the Classical Academic, six from the Latin Normal and one from the English; four of the total number belonging in Greensboro. All the pieces rendered by the class were good. Mrs. M. J. Bullock's, paper—tribute to Francis Willard, was equal to an encore. While the visiting temperence workers sat in ecstasy. Prof. C. H. Moore, A. M. of the A. & M. College of our city delivered the annual address, the title, "Ph'D", has been conferred upon some that will never produce more philosophy than did he on this occasion. The diplomas were awarded by President Chavis, and the benediction by Father Wells. Then the curtain of the last act of the collegiate drama of Bennett College went down to rise October, 5th 1898.

SPAIN'S UTTER HOPELESSNESS.

One Pitiful Wail From the Heraldo Sums Up the Situation.

Madrid, May 11—The Heraldo says: "Our warships have been destroyed, our brethren in Manila are besieged, Cuba is blockaded and our troops are abandoned to Providence, Porto Rico is threatened and may be about to receive the enemy's fire. Our squadron is sailing in search of a supreme engagement, and here there is no government.

"All Spain is convulsed with a terrible social crisis and is famine stricken. It is wavering between a state of siege and absolute anarchy, and where a brilliant light should appear there is utter darkness, indecision, flight, suave qui peut. There is no government, no Ministers. There is nothing."

On to Chicamauga.

North Carolina troops have been ordered to mobilize next week. Don't miss the opportunity to give them a last farewell, on to morrow's excursion—only $1.50 round trip, via Southern Railway 1t

So Tired! So Tired!
Chronic Dyspepsia!

For ten years I had been a severe sufferer from chronic dyspepsia, which was pronounced incurable. I was completely run down, and in the summer season was not able to do anything and spent a great part of the time lying down. I could not touch meat of any kind, or any solid food whatever, as I could not digest it at all and had to live on crackers and light diet. I was very nervous, would have severe nervous spells, and could not get any oatural sleep, I was so restless. I suffered all the time from chronic dysentery, which kept me weakened down. That was my condition when I determined as a last resort to try Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy. I had tried so many treatments and so many patent medicines without benefit that I had no faith in anything and had almost made up my mind not to try another thing, when Mrs. Person came to my house last April and induced me to try her Remedy. I bought ½ dozen bottles. Felt no relief whatever until I was on the fourth bottle, when I knew I was getting better. I became stronger, got so I could sleep well and there was no necessity for me to lie down in the day time. I took twenty-two bottles before I stopped. My digestion is now perfect, and I can eat meat, vegetables, and anything else I want, and as much as I want. When I commenced the Remedy I weighed 98 pounds, now I weigh 115 pounds. Dysentery perfectly cured, and it is all owing to Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy. It is everything claimed for it.

TO RAISE THIRTY MEN.

Capt. Shenck Will Unite With Capt. Holt's Company.

Captain Simpson Schenck returned from Raleigh last night where he had gone to confer with Adjutant General Cowles with a view to mustering a squad of men into the regular service and to secure equipment for the home guards. Gen. Cowles told him that just at present all the guns that could be unearthed were in use but so soon as the new army rifles daily expected arrive he can furnish fifty for the home guards here. The uniforms can not be supplied for some time to come. Capt. Shenck made an arrangement with Capt. Holt of Burlington to unite a squad of thirty men with the Burlington company, the squad of Greensboro to take alternate officers. This morning Capt. Schenck received a telegram from Gen. Cowles informing him that he would be given until Saturday only to complete his quota of thirty men; if Capt. Holt's company is not full by that time it will be compelled to yield its place in the Second regiment to a company of one hundred men from Murphy now on the ground and anxious to be mustered in. Any one desiring to enlist is requested to report promptly at Judge Shenck's office.

Captain Schenck says the boys are exceedingly well cared for; are provided with plenty of excellent food and the tents are neat and comfortable. General Cowles showed him over Camp Grimes and extended every possible courtesy.

To join the squad under Captain Schenck will probably be the last chance of enlistment for any one from this county.

REMEMBER OUR BOYS.

Send Them Some Boxes of Eatables Next Saturday.

Nearly every town in the state has remembered its soldier boys at Camp Grimes and sent them hampers and boxes of good things to eat. We are told that Greensboro is the only town that has not sent something to its volunteers. Even if they have been mustered in they are not rolling in luxury and their tables do not groan under a superabundance of delicacies. Hard tack and "salt horse" three times a day make the boys sigh and wish for something from the home folks. Seeing the other companies enjoying their good things only whets their appetites all the more and they relish less their hard camp food. Then too, the boys are keenly feeling the neglest of Greensboro folks to send something them. Let the mothers, sisters and sweethearts of the boys in camp get up great big boxes of good things for every one of the boys in Greensboro's company.

EDITORIAL.

We have had the cool wet spell in May. We may now expect the summer season to begin shortly, and to continue without interruption.

—o—

We do not think there is any reason for dreading the warm weather. There are a great many enjoyments peculiar to the spring and summer, without which life would be exceedingly monotonous. Picnics will soon be on hand.

—o—

By the way, have you secured a BICYCLE? The roads will soon be in fine condition for riding. Comfort, pleasure and health demand that you take advantage of the low prices which we are now offering, and supply yourself with a wheel. The Crawford has made a record of which any wheel might well be proud. The price is exceedingly low.

—o—

If you wish an Ice Cream Freezer, a refrigerator, or any other summer specialties, do not forget that we are Headquarters.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

The above picture is very suggestive. What is more pleasant on the evening of a warm day, than to spray your grass and flowers: and if you should accidentally get the hose turned in the wrong direction, the victim will not suffer so keenly as this would indicate.
